

Connie Dwyer Breast Center Elizabeth, NJ

Interior fit-out of space to create a high-tech breast center with the latest in 3D imaging technology set in a comfortable, attractive, and soothing environment.

◀ Exam room

▼ Graphic wall panel

Project Size	3,800 SF Renovation
Project Location	Trinitas Regional Medical Center, Elizabeth, NJ
Project Cost	$3,400,000
Completion Date	October 2018

The Breast Center, located at the main campus of Trinitas Regional Medical Center, serves women in need, by offering comprehensive screening, diagnosis and treatment, as well as, community outreach and education programs.

To greatly improve the basement location of the project extensive use of lighting and illuminated graphic panels color, and texture in building materials to provide a very unique space that is visually inviting, comfortable and calming for both patients and staff to receive and deliver outstanding medical care.